

Angel Voices (Gloria in Excelsis Deo)

Words & music by Rogue. 'Gloria in Excelsis Deo' reprise- Traditional.
Performed and arranged by Rogue/The CruxShadows.
Recorded at Wishfire Studios, Florida.
Cover Art by Dominique Kennedy & Rogue.
Audio Mastered for higher dynamic range, so turn it up!

Lyrics: Angel Voices (Gloria in Excelsis Deo)

I heard the Angel Voices rise
like thunder against the mountainside, dancing through the fields in flight
to rest upon my lips.
And when I looked to see them sing,
their anthem for an infant king,
Heaven bent its mighty knee
to greet this newborn child.

Gloria in Excelsis Deo

I wandered out into the night;
Its darkness broken by the light.
A star was burning in the sky
like the dawning of a sun.
And there before me high above
they sang the sacred song of love,
A thousand -million souls of man—
their voices all as one.

(In the bitter cold
It shines like gold,
shimmering down
on the world below.
The solstice sky
shines out of time,
as all creation
sings tonight.
...Sings tonight.)

Gloria in Excelsis Deo

You can hear them,
if you listen,
Angel Voices In the night.

And with my frenzied dreaming mind,
I heard the whispering inside,
Daring me to be the man
I know that I can be.
And though its cold and bleak today,
that sense of hope, it still remains—
A beacon bright to guide my heart and help me find my way.

(I close my eyes
to see my life,
like a phoenix
burning bright.
...Comes shining through)

Gloria in Excelsis Deo

You can hear them,
if you listen,
Angel Voices In the night.

Gloria in Excelsis Deo